History of the Child :

M. Selva Nagomi Annal D/O. Maria Amalraj, M. Jeyarani hailed from Mannur village, Sriperumbathur. Due to her Dad's addiction to drinks, her mother could not live with him. She studied in different children's homes due to family problems. She has four sisters. She is the last daughter of the family and also first graduate in the family. For this reason, Adhanur Helping Hands is supporting for her school education and for higher studies. She completed 12th standard and admitted B.Sc., Nursing at Sree Balaji Nursing College, Chrompet. Now she is studying third year of B.Sc., nursing. The AHH Trust is paying her college fees and providing free boarding and lodging. Apart from her college time, she does voluntary service in the home.

Opinion of Nagomi :

I came to Adhanur Helping Hands in the year 2019 and admitted in 11th standard. The Home supported for my education and free boarding and lodging since 2019. I am the first graduate in my family. I am very grateful to the Director of the Adhanur helping Hands for their financial support, overall development of my studies, personality development and etc to empower my life style. I thank and appreciate the members of the Adhanur Helping Hands for their continuous support for my carrier. It is a blessing for me that I am in this Home. Without the Director's support, I wouldn't do my higher studies. I hope and believe that after my studies I will support to other orphan children for higher studies. My sincere thanks to all the supporters of the Adhanur Helping Hands.
